Day 9: Oudtshoorn to Montagu via Route 62 (260km)

Highlights: Quirky Route 62

Today we ride the world-famous Route 62- This is South Africa's answer to Route 66 in the USA, a small forgotten highway that travels through the Karoo Desert with lots of quirky stops along the way like Ronnies Sex Shop and the Karoo Moon Motel. We will enjoy some gravel and tar mountain passes and arrive at our country hotel in the late afternoon (B,L,D)

Day 10: Montagu to Franschoek in the Cape Winelands (160km)

Highlights: Mountains, Vineyards, Wine and culinary delights

Are we in Africa or in Europe? This is the question we ask ourselves as we ride today. Leaving Route 62 behind we enjoy riding some tar and gravel mountain passes that are famous in this region. We enjoy a leisurely lunch in the historical town of Greyton and then ride over the Franschhoek pass. Tonight we sleep in the center of town, surrounded by vineyards and mountain peaks. (B,L,D)

Franschhoek Pass

Day 11: Rest Day Franschhoek in the Cape Winelands (0-50km)

Highlights: Mountains, Vineyards, Wine and culinary delights

We enjoy a well-earned rest day in the Franschhoek. There is an option today to get on the Hop on Hop off wine tram to visit several wine farms in the area. Don't like wine? Not to worry! There is also cheese tasting, biltong tasting, chocolate tasting, and all sorts of culinary delights. We know in every group there are a bunch of guys who just want to ride, so if that is you, there will be an optional ride today to enjoy some more of the epic roads in the area. For the ladies- why not enjoy a spa treatment or some shopping? The options are endless (B,D)

A day off the bikes to relax

Day 12: Franchhoek to Cederberg (240km- 110km of Good Gravel)

Highlights: Cederberg Wilderness

Today is a real highlight of the tour as we travel by good hard-packed gravel roads into the Cederberg Mountains. En Route, we will visit the famous Tankwa Padstal for Lunch and then continue on to our remote lodge for the night where we will enjoy dinner under the stars and share stories around a roaring fire. Remember to look up This area is famous for its beautiful star gazing (B,L,D)

Tankwa Padstal- Our lunch stop

Day 13: Cederberg to Cape Town (320km)

Highlights: More Great Riding

Today we enjoy more great riding through the Cederberg up high over the Algeria Pass and the Pakhuis Pass. We stop in to see some ancient rock formations and san rock art and then enjoy a hearty lunch in Clanwilliam before riding back into Cape Town. Tonight we go out to celebrate the end of an amazing 2 Week tour at one of Cape Town's Best Restaurants (B,L,D)
